August 31, 1976

Dear Mr. Aranda,

I am well aware of the contributions made by the Hispanic Community, and you can be sure that I will do my best to see that all components of this Agency realize the significance of "National Hispanic Heritage Week of 1976."

Sincerely,

George Bush

Dear Mr. Director:

I would like to take this opportunity to bring to your attention the President's intention to sign a Proclamation announcing the week of September 12th through 19th as "National Hispanic Heritage Week of 1976."

In designating the aforementioned period the President is requesting that your Department insure that all components are aware of the contribution made by the Hispanic Community to the economic, social and cultural growth of our country.

Along these lines the President also requests that appropriate measures be taken to inform all employees of the significance of this week.

For your further information, upon the President's signing of this Proclamation, a copy will be made available to you for reproduction and distribution within your organization.

May I wish you a most happy "National Hispanic Heritage Week."

Very truly yours,

Thomas Aranda, Jr.
Special Assistant to the President

The Honorable George Bush
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505
